

KLW Plastics Announces Expansion of Monroe, Ohio Manufacturing Plant

Monroe, OH – November 19, 2013

For Immediate Release

KLW Plastics announced today that it will expand its Monroe, Ohio facility. The 25,000 sq. ft. expansion is designed to accommodate additional office, manufacturing and warehouse needs.

“We are highly committed to continual improvement of our value proposition” said Scott Dowrey, President and CEO of KLW Plastics. “This expansion will allow us to improve service to the growing Midwest customer base and support the new sustainable product development initiatives company wide.”

Since its founding eight years ago in Monroe, Ohio, KLW has become the leading provider of rigid, tight head containers serving a broad array of markets. The company currently operates manufacturing facilities in Monroe, Ohio, Houston, Texas and Atlanta, Georgia.
