

KLW Plastics Announces a New President

Monroe, OH – June 18, 2013

For Immediate Release

KLW Plastics announced today that Mr. Scott Dowrey has joined the company as President and CEO. Scott brings many years of experience and success in the packaging industry to KLW most recently as President of Storopak, North America.

“We were fortunate to find someone of Scott’s caliber to lead KLW as the company continues its rapid growth,” said Jim Peden, Chief Operating Officer of KODA Enterprises Group, KLW’s owner. “The Board of Directors at KLW saw an immediate fit of Scott’s leadership skills and experience with KLW’s needs and we look forward to Scott and his team at KLW building on the success of the company.”

Since its founding eight years ago in Monroe, Ohio, KLW has become the leading provider of rigid, tight head containers serving a broad array of markets. The company has expanded several times in Monroe, added a facility in Houston, Texas in 2008 and opened a third facility in Atlanta, Georgia in July of 2012.

“I am excited to be joining such a dynamic organization and I look forward to working with our employees, customers and suppliers to make KLW an even stronger company” said Mr. Dowrey.
